

the bat and, in this game, the errors in the field on the part of their adversaries; for in these two innings there were no less than forty-nine catches from wild throws, and some half dozen failures to stop balls, the Athletics not being entitled to lose more had they fielded better than the mark of the previous play of the match. The Mutuals, however, lost confidence amazingly in these two innings, and fielded very nervously, all of them being too anxious. The ninth inning was commenced with the totals standing 16 to 14 in favor of the Atlantic, the interest being intense. It was on the cards to win yet if the Mutuals could have composed themselves into anything like winning shape, but the majority were too much on the anxious seat, and their opponents being quite the reverse. The Mutuals did not seem to be in the least excited, and finally closing for a total of 17 to 15 in favor of the Atlantics, who by their plucky up-bill play well may be called the two best players they achieved.

The majority at large for the good feeling manifested throughout this important and exciting contest, and the thorough order which prevailed from beginning to end. Not a policeman was present, and the only excitement was the cheering of the crowd, and the cheering of the Mutuals retired from the field defeated, they earned success by their manly play manner in which they bore with their misfortunes. The U-

THE HOBOKEN RACES.

SPLENDID SPORT—FASTEST HURDLE RACE.

The first day of the first Fall meeting at SACONAGO took place yesterday. The attendance was far from as large as might be expected; still there was a goodly number upon the grounds. The weather was everything that could be desired, and the course was in excellent order.

The programme presented was a most attractive one, and the sport and amusement fully up to the desire of the spectators.

FIRST RACE.—Hurdle Race, a Handicap Premium of $50, for all colts, two years and under, to be run on the 10th of September. Closed with five entries: Zigzag, 15 lb. red and black; Nemo Craddock, 156 lb. red and black; General Williams, 12 lb. green and black; Sacconago, 115 lb. red and blue; Lady Wood, 115 lb. blue.

The first horse to make appearance was Nannie Croudock, looking a little battered and weather-stained, but she was soon after shown and won the palm. Gen. Williams and Zigzag both looked well, the former being favorite at even against the field. Sequences in a pretty, well bred bay, looked better than in the chestnut stallion in previous performances. In the last meeting, rather an uncertain one to bet money on.

THE RACE.

Nannie Croudock went off with the lead, Williams second, and the balance strung out. The first fence was knocked over by the fourth horse, nearly causing Lady Wolf to fall. The chestnut stallion, however, was not thrown, and the chestnut retained the lead, making the work very sharp. It was quite apparent thus early that Lady Wolf was out of place. The third and

 Blue has outstanding qualities, but is not a good sire, except perhaps Lady Dan Bryant, who would be much benefitted by a little more flesh. Richmond's condition is apparently better than he has been in the past.
 Blue was divided by the Lady Birmingham and Knightwood, although both F. Ford and Fordham had many fanciers.

THE RACE.

At the first Fordham took the lead, and it was apparent that those who wanted to see up and down finish had got to the pace; Lady Dan was a good second, Richmond third. At the quarter and half mile their positions were unchanged, save that Richmond had passed her leadership. From the Knight's second momentary lull, the two antagonists sprang forward. Lady Huesington and Blackbird to 'ad off. In rounding the last turn the game little tip of Dr. Weldon was well up in the leading rack, and about 100 yards from some took the frock with flying hands and feet.

Although both horses entered for this race had run in the last, yet neither appeared the worse. Knighthood was favored

First Heat.—An excellent start both going away neck and neck, the mare got the mare but the lead by a length keeping this place all along the back stretch. On entering the far turn at the top of the course, Knighthood challenged her and in the running she was able to get the lead. The mare being called upon, shot to the front and won the heat by four lengths. Time, 1:50.

Second Heat.—Knighthood got the lead at starting, but her lead soon got away from her. At the half-mile post she led by half a length, but the brave little horse came alongside of her round the upper turn, and so even were they, that until entering the home-straight it would be impossible to say which had the advantage. The superior speed of the mare was then shown to great advantage, for being called on he took the front and won the heat with ease. Time, 1:50.

1 1/2 MILE HEAT: Lady Helsingborg appeared determined to start again, but her obstinate coach lost a lot of time. However, after trying the patience of the starter, both went off the mare leading. At the quarter, Knighthood took the front and retained it all around and some with ease, winning the race and heat. The mare dead lane when pulled up. Time 1:59.8.
First heat 1:50, 2nd 1:50.4, 3rd 1:53.4.

PROGRAMME FOR TO-DAY.
 To-day there will be a steeple chase over three miles of fast heaving country. The winner of the steeple chase ran in the hurdle race will probably start. There will also be a dash of two-and-a-half miles, and a race of mile heats.

HIGH MASS AT THE CHURCH OF TRANSFIGURATION.—Yesterday morning the solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated at the Church of Transfiguration, corner of Mott and Park-sts. It was celebrated by Father Treanor, the pastor of the church, for the repose of the souls of the late Archbishop Hughes, and that of his sister, the Rev. Mother Angela, the principal of the Hospital of St. Vincent. The church was crowded to excess, every aisle and avenue being filled as early as possible. The following reverend gentlemen assisted at the altar: Rev. Fathers O'Connell, O'Connell, O'Connell, O'Reilly, Kelly, Cassidy and Mahoney. There were present in the choir of charity, most of whom were connected with St. Vincent's Hospital, the Rev. Fathers O'Connell, O'Reilly, Kelly, Cassidy and Mahoney. The principal soloists were Mrs. McCaffrey and Miss Sweeney were the principal soloists.

The singing and male were exceedingly fine. About 1,500 boys and girls were present from the adjoining school, and contributed to the success of the concert. The school has the most satisfactory condition in every respect, and reflects the highest credit upon Father Treanor and the sisters of charity, who supervised the management.

dead and found the patient insensible, and in a short time he died. The Coroner ascertained upon inquiry that the deceased had had for his usual haunts a place known as the "Flood" owned by Kate McCarthy, and that he was a professed gambler, visiting the various gambling establishments about town, and that he had been home late at night, early in the morning. He was not much addicted to drinking, and the doctor McCarthy informed the Coroner, but had lately complained of severe internal pain.

On Tuesday morning, about 1 o'clock, the deceased came home, apparently sober, his female companions being temporarily absent. He was found the next afternoon lying upon the floor insensible. A physician was at once procured, but, in spite of all that could be done, he never rallied sufficient to speak to the doctor. Some time after he died, and the doctor could have taken poison. To-day an inquest will be held on

A SINGULAR CASE—DEATH THE RESULT OF FRIGHT.
—Coroner Wilder yesterday held an inquest at No. 71 Attorney on the body of Mary A. Sanders, aged nine years. The cause of death is stated to be congestion of the brain, caused by excessive fright. The following is the statement of the mother, Ellen Sanders: "On Saturday I was locked up in prison on some charge; I do not know exactly what I deceased, I understood, became very much frightened

He was about 17, 18 or 19 years of age, and was brought here from the station after that time. He was brought here from the Station-House by the Police, and then complained of pain in the chest and was very restless all Saturday night. On Sunday she was still nervous and agitated, and on Sunday night at 12 o'clock she spit clots of blood, and became insensible; she had convulsions at 9 o'clock on Monday morning and died soon after." Deputy Coroner Wooster Bosch, Jr., M. D. made a post mortem examination, and rendered an opinion that death had been caused by a congestion of the brain. A verdict in accordance with this opinion was rendered by the jury.
